FIST SWINGING HOOD REVIVES MURDER QUIZ

BY WILLIAM JUNEAU

Lyons police reopened their investigation yesterday into the 1957 gangland slaying of Willard O. Bates, a tavern owner, with the arrest by Chicago police of Tony [Pineapples] Eldorado, 49, a hoodlum and associate of the murdered man.

Eldorado, an ex-convict who has served time for robbery in a Michigan prison, was arrested Tuesday evening by vice district detectives from the Austin police district in a hot dog stand he intends to open at 5463 Madison st., and under the apartment where he lives.

Sgt. William Maloney and Donald Herion sought to question Eldorado about peddling bottles of vodka from his home. They were unaware of his name and did not know that Lyons police had been searching for him for six years.

Eldorado, long known by police for his explosive disposition, attacked Maloney and Herion when they questioned him. The policemen ward off the wild swings by the gangster and took him to the Austin station.

Eldorado was charged with assault and battery on a police officer and resisting arrest. When Maloney checked his past record, he saw that Lyons police wanted to question him. Chief James Svoboda of the Lyons department said that Eldorado would not cooperate but that he would be questioned on the Bates case again today. Eldorado will appear May 6 on the assault and resisting charges in Rackets court.

Sgt. Maloney said that two attache cases containing cdstime jewelry were found in Eldorado's apartment. A loaded .38 caliber pistol wrapped in a towel was also found.

For the information of Houston and Phoenix
ANTHONY (TONY) ELDORADO is a vicious Chicago hoodlum with a reputation as a muscle man and killer for the syndicate.

On 4/23/63, ELDORADO was arrested by the Chicago during a routine investigation.

During a search of his apartment at 5463 West cases containing costume jewelry and miscellaneous items.

The cases were brown and gray with a small square cut out of the brown case apparently where initials were on the case. Inside one case was a piece of letterhead stationery from the Milby Hotel in Houston, Texas, and a H&B Jewelry Sales order book, 316 Fannin Street, Houston, Texas.

Investigation on the various items failed to reveal any identifying numbers or names other than brand names except for a stock number on one box.

These items included the following:

1. Key measuring ring and stick.
2. Manicure sets in tan kits and red kits by Griffon Quality Cuttlers, one box bearing number 5817.
3. Ladies' electric manicure set in pink and clear plastic box.
4. Several pairs of earrings which appeared to be a large yellowish rhinestone. The price tag showed the value of these to be $37.50. The earrings were in a small blue felt box.
5. Several rings with large single and double pearl settings priced at $32.50 and $34.50.
6. Several rings of silver with two hearts and two flowers with a ruby set in the flowers and a rhinestone in the hearts.
7. A crown jewel set with a watch chain, tie clasp, and cuff links.
8. A quantity of Fluva, Lucerne, Aureol and Grewaco watches.

The main purpose of this inquiry was to establish the subject's associates, area of operation and scope of activity.

Among ELDORADO's personal papers were letters from the Mullen Realty Company, 1912 East Highway 66, Kingman, Arizona, addressed to TOM ZITO, 840 Forest Avenue, Evanston Hotel, Evanston, Illinois. This letter reflected inquiry by ELDORADO as to land and building purchases in that area.

HOODLUM FACES CHARGES

Hot Dog Man Gets Himself in a Pickle

Hoodlum Tony (The Hot Dog Man) Eldorado, 49, suspected by police of peddling vodka as well as hot dogs to teen-agers, has been charged with battery and resisting arrest.

Eldorado, an ex-convict with a police record dating back to 1936, slugged Sgt. William Maloney when Maloney questioned him about the alleged vodka sales, police said.

Eldorado is scheduled to appear Monday, May 6, in S. State St. Court.

MALONEY said police found two teen-age girls "blind drunk" in an alley near Eldorado's hot dog stand at 5463 W. Madison.

The girls told police they became drunk on a bottle of vodka that two boy acquaintances bought at Eldorado's stand. The two youths were being sought for questioning.

After his arrest, Eldorado was questioned and cleared by Lyons police in the 1957 gangland style slaying of Willard O. Bates, an ex-convict tavern owner who reportedly had a falling out with crime syndicate hoodlums.

MALONEY said Eldorado has been seen with gang boss Anthony J. (Big Tuna) Accardo and syndicate chieftain Sam (Mooney) Giancana.

Police said they found two loaded pistols and two cases of costume jewelry in Eldorado's apartment above the hot dog stand.

[redacted] at the 15th District on April 22nd at 2230 hours.

They stated that they attend Logan Continuation School and that this morning they set out for school but discovered that it was clean-up week and that there was no school. They then went to CHAN'S Restaurant and SPARTA Grove, at Central and Lake. They left there and went to a restaurant at Lotus and Madison, named KARL'S Hotdog House where they met two males who were riding in a 1963 Ford Galaxie. They entered the auto, drove around the block and stopped at a hotdog stand at 5463 W. Madison. One of the males entered the hotdog stand and returned a couple of minutes later with a fifth of Vodka. On entering the auto this male stated that he had paid $4.00 for the bottle. They then drove to a garage, whereabouts unknown but possibly in the vicinity of Kostner and Madison, where they consumed the bottle of Vodka. The next thing the girls remember, clearly, is that they were dropped from the auto at 4936 W. Congress. Both girls denied emphatically that they had been sexually assaulted.

Description of Males is as follows: (1) Driver and owner of auto; 20 yrs., 5'2; 160 pounds. Brown hair, brown eyes. Wearing green slacks, green shirt and combat boots. This man was known to the girls only as [redacted] (2) 18", 140-150 pounds. Brown hair. 19 yrs. Black leather jacket, black shirt and black trousers. Known to the girls as [redacted]

VIII. NEWSPAPER ITEM IN "CHICAGO TRIBUNE"

April 24, 1963

"FIST SWINGING HOOD REVIVES MURDER QUIZ"

"BY

"Lyons police reopened their investigation yesterday into the 1957 gangland slaying of Willard O. Bates, a tavern owner, with the arrest by Chicago Police of Tony (Pineapples) Eldorado, 49, a hoodlum and associate of the murdered man.

"Eldorado, an ex-convict who has served time for robbery in a Michigan prison, was arrested Tuesday evening by vice district detectives from the Austin police district in a hot dog stand he intends to open at 5463 Madison st., and under the apartment where he lives.

"Sgt. William Maloney and Donald Herion sought to question Eldorado about peddling bottles of vodka from his home. They were unaware of his name and did not know that Lyons police had been searching for him for six years.

"Eldorado, long known by police for his explosive disposition, attacked Maloney and Herion when they questioned him. The policemen warded off the wild swings by the gangster and took him to the Austin station.

"Eldorado was charged with assault and battery on a police officer and resisting arrest. When Maloney checked his past record, he saw that Lyons police wanted to question him.

"Chief James Svoboda of the Lyons department said that Eldorado would not cooperate but that he would be questioned on the Bates case again today.

CG 92-1374

"Eldorado will appear May 6 on the assault and resisting charges in Rackets court.

"Sgt. Maloney said that two attache cases containing costume jewelry were found in Eldorado's apartment. A loaded .38 caliber pistol wrapped in a towel was also found."

IX. LIST OF ARTICLES TAKEN FROM SUBJECT'S APARTMENT
BY CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

April 23, 1968

X. GENERAL BACKGROUND INFORMATION CONCERNING SUBJECT GATHERED DURING INVESTIGATIONS OF OTHER MATTERS

The "Chicago Daily News", five star final edition, dated June 29, 1951, page 3, column 4, contained an article captioned "Orders Roe Freed on $25,000 Bail".

This article reflected that THEODORE ROE, boss of the South Side policy racket, was ordered freed from County Jail on $25,000 cash bond.

ROE is charged with murder for his admitted fatal shooting of LEONARD CAIFANO, crime syndicate hoodlum, June 18.

While ROE was getting his freedom, a friend of CAIFANO's was telling state's attorney's investigators CAIFANO hired the cruiser Lady Lu for sunbathing on the lake to cure a skin disease.

The picture of CAIFANO as a sunbather was given to [redacted] assistants, [redacted] by TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO, 35, of 619 South Loomis Boulevard.

b6
b7C

ELDORADO, who said he is a banker (for a floating crap game), told them he went with CAIFANO to the boat yard at 2500 South Ashland June 15 to look over the vessel.

He did not know anything about CAIFANO's fatal encounter with ROE, he said. He was released.

The "Chicago Herald-American", 8 star sports edition, dated February 6, 1952, Page 10, Column 2, contained an article captioned, "U.S. Hits Gang Chiefs in Horsemeat Probe".

CG 92-1374

This article reflected that a report showing that Guzik-Capone syndicate bosses and other underworld characters are deeply involved in the multi-million dollar horsemeat racket was received by the Department of Justice and Office of Price Stabilization bonds in Washington and Federal officials in Chicago.

The report lists TONY ACCARDO, and his associate, "Tough" TONY CAPEZIO, as kingpins in the horsemeat racket.

Other hoodlums listed in the report as having misceled in on horsemeat slaughterers and dealers through terroristic methods include: TONY (PINEAPPLES) ELBORADO, mob dice game operator.

Chicago T-1 advised on January 3, 1958, that [redacted] local Chicago burglar, presently resides at [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, and drives a two tone blue 1955 Pontiac. [redacted] plays cards frequently at 3502 1/2 West Harrison Street, Chicago, a gaming place being operated by TONY NERE.

CG T-2 advised that SAM GIANCANA rules supreme over the Melrose Park and Cicero Area. CG T-2 advised that with reference to GIANCANA he is generally accompanied by a hoodlum known as "PINEAPPLES", who was an individual maintained by GIANCANA strictly as a muscle man and disciplinarian.

CG T-3 on February 28, 1958, advised that [redacted] hangs out at [redacted] and Chicago or Division. He stated that about two years ago [redacted] had "PINEAPPLES" ELBORADO and [redacted] beat up (First Name Unknown) [redacted]

CG 92-1374

CG T-4 advised on February 28, 1962, that TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO is a bodyguard for FIFI BUCCIERI and can generally be seen with BUCCIERI all the time. He advised that at one time FIFI BUCCIERI and SAM "SAMBO" CESARIO had mutual interests in gambling along with TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO in the vicinity of Madison, Ogden and Ashland Avenues. He advised, however, that SAM "SAMBO" CESARIO seemed out of favor and was eventually dropped from the group. TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO and FIFI BUCCIERI stuck together and are still close associates. He explained, however, that FIFI BUCCIERI is the boss and TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO simply takes orders and does what he is told by BUCCIERI. He described ELDORADO as white male, age 50-51, 5'9", husky build, 220 pounds.

On April 2, 1962, CG T-5 advised the district controlled for organized crime by FIORE "FIFI" BUCCIERI begins at Halsted and runs to the west as far as Ashland Avenue; on the north it is bounded by Lake Street and on the south probably by Van Buren Street. He advised that he understands that BUCCIERI also controls another district for organized crime which is located west of the above district. He advised that an individual whom he knows only as "TONY PINES" and who is probably identical with TONY "PINEAPPLES" ELDORADO is constantly with BUCCIERI and serves as his bodyguard. He also advised that FRANK BUCCIERI also works in this district under the direction of his brother. He advised that "TONY PINES" is very strong physically.

The following investigation was conducted at Houston, Texas, on May 9-10, 1963, by SA JAMES W. RUSSELL:

On May 9, 1963, Mr. [] of the Standard Jewelry Company, 204 Kress Building, advised that the name ANTHONY ELDORADO means nothing to him and that he has known no person by that name in the past. Mr. [] checked records of outstanding accounts and of customers of record of this jewelry company and advised that he could locate no record indicating that anyone named ANTHONY ELDORADO, or anyone under the various aliases known to be used by ANTHONY ELDORADO, has done business with this company.

On May 10, 1963, Mr. [] of the B & B Jewelry Company, 1520 Capitol Avenue, advised that this company was formerly located at 316 Fannin Street, Houston, Texas. Mr. [] explained that the B & B Jewelry Company sells inexpensive type jewelry and specialty items to travelling specialty salesmen, to carnival "pitch men" and to various other "peddlers" of the jewelry trade. Mr. [] stated that a great quantity of material sold by this company would be to individuals and that no record would be made of the cash sales. He checked records of his company and could not locate any record of a person named ANTHONY ELDORADO, or of a person known by the aliases of ELDORADO as being a known customer of the jewelry company. Mr. [] stated that the B & B Jewelry Company has not, in the past, suffered a robbery or burglary, through which merchandise has been lost.

The Honorable ALBERTO REYES SPINDOLA, Consul for Mexico, with offices in the World Trade Center Building, Houston, Texas, on May 10, 1963, checked records of his office and advised SA JAMES W. RUSSELL that he could locate no record of a passport having been issued to ANTHONY ELDORADO. He stated that the number 2989, as described as being a number on a passport issued to ELDORADO, would be too high a number for a passport to have been issued in Houston, Texas. Mr. SPINDOLA said that a person by the name of ANTHONY ELDORADO is unknown to him.

Seek Mob Ties in 11 Guns Found in Cache

A cache of guns and ammunition, found yesterday in a south side warehouse, may provide police with a link to the Cosa Nostra — the national crime syndicate—and to many unsolved gang murders.

The 11 guns—revolvers and pistols ranging from .32 to .45 caliber—and 1,000 rounds of ammunition were wrapped in plastic and stored in a wooden box in a locker at Chicago Allied Warehouses, Inc., 2101 S. Wabash av.

Warehouse ledgers showed the locker fee had been paid for the last four years and the locker was assigned to "T. Eldorado, care of John Eldorado."

May Be "Pineapples"

Police said T. Eldorado may be Tony [Pineapples] Eldorado, 49, ex-convict whose last known address was 5463 Madison st. He was arrested there last April for attacking two detectives who tried to question him. Later he was questioned by Lyons police about the 1957 gangland slaying of Willard O. Bates, a tavern owner.

The weapons and ammunition were seized by Detectives John Zitek and Thomas Gushes, who were sent to the warehouse by Lt. Francis Nash of the intelligence division. Nash had a telephone tip that the weapons and ammunition would be found there.

Seek Links to 40 Killings

The guns were taken to the police crime laboratory for ballistics tests to determine if they had been used in any of at least 40 unsolved gang murders in the last 20 years.

Robert Vinar, warehouse manager, told police that the renter made a number of visits to the warehouse. He opened the locker containing the guns, but it was not known if he removed anything from the locker or added anything to its contents on his visits, the warehouse manager added.

Cosa Nostra Guns Seized In South Side Warehouse

By Sandy Smith

A Cosa Nostra arsenal was seized by police Tuesday in a warehouse at 2101 S. Wabash.

Intelligence Division detectives found 11 handguns and more than 1,000 rounds of ammunition in a black wooden box stored in the warehouse by a Cosa Nostra gangster, Tony (Pineapples) Eldorado, 49.

Acting on a telephone tip from an anonymous informant, Detectives John Zitek and Thomas Gushes found the cache on the fifth floor of the Chicago Allied Warehouse Building.

The ammunition and hand-revolver and automatic pistols ranging in caliber from .22 to .45—were confiscated and taken to police headquarters.

Police ballistics experts began testing the guns. A link to the Chicago area was found with no other than the gangsters in the Chicago area in the last five years.

Crime Lab ballistics men found fragments on at least one of the guns. The Sun Times learned.

Police said that each gun was carefully wrapped in a plastic bag. Some of the revolvers were almost new and appeared to have been fired only a few times. Others, including some foreign makes, were old and had been fired often, the ballistics men said.

Some of the guns were found in two toolboxes stored in the 3-by-5-foot black box.

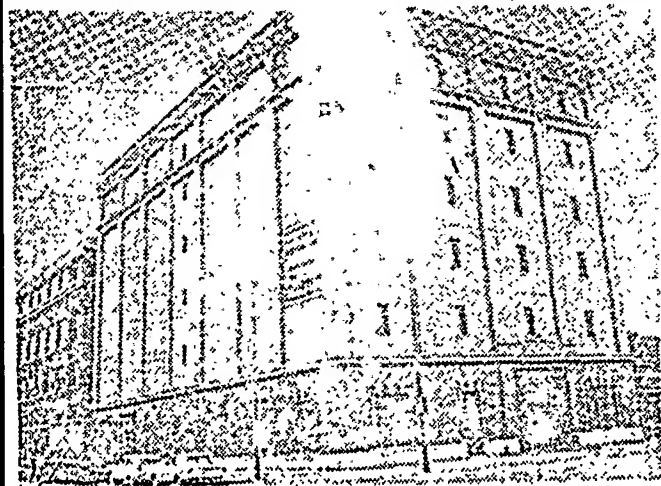

The warehouse manager, B. Robert Vinar, told detectives the black box had been stored in the warehouse for more than four years.

Storage fees on the gun cache were paid through the years by Eldorado, according to Vinar.

But the warehouse did not keep a record, of how many times Eldorado came to the storage locker to pick up guns or deposit them in the black box, Vinar said.

The storage of explosives or ammunition in such a warehouse is a violation of a city ordinance, detectives said.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation examined the 11 guns to determine if Eldorado came into possession of the weapons in violation of federal firearms statutes.

In crime syndicate rackets, Eldorado has operated as a horse-meat peddler, gambler and loan shark.

He was identified as a member of Cosa Nostra in the federal investigations of the national murder-and-terror brotherhood.

Police described Eldorado as a gang triggerman and bomber—in gang argot, his nickname is a synonym for bomb—after he was released in 1938 from a prison term in Michigan for armed robbery.

Eldorado's wild temper resulted in his attack last April on Police Sgt. William Maloney of the Austin District.

Eldorado slugged Maloney when the sergeant sought to question Eldorado about the sale of liquor to teenagers from Eldorado's hot dog stand at 5401 W. Madison.

At that time, two loaded pistols were found in Eldorado's apartment above the hot dog stand.

Atkinson Police Department, advised that there was no record of any burglary, robbery or break-in of the Lakeland Sporting Goods Store, with that department having occurred in the fall of 1954. He stated he would attempt to recheck to determine if there had been in fact such an occurrence.

On February 10, 1964, EDWARD SCHULTZ advised that there had been no reported burglary of the Lakeland Sporting Goods Store at Ft. Atkinson, and further that after contacting [redacted] had determined that there had been an occurrence of sale of firearms

START INVESTIGATION AT LANSING, MICH.

On 8/18/64, Mr. [redacted] Walter Neller Real Estate Co., [redacted], Lansing, Mich., advised SA ROBERT F. BOYLE that according to his records one FRANK ROSE, Kalamazoo, Mich., on 2/24/61, appeared at his company's office and made a deposit of $100 for the purpose of entering into a purchase agreement to purchase property located at 1320 South Washington Ave., Lansing. He stated that this $100 deposit was returned to ROSE at the company office on 3/2/61, and that ROSE in turn cashed this check, in the amount of $100, at the company office cashier.

He stated that ROSE again appeared at his office on 3/20/61, and again made a deposit of $100 for the purpose of entering into a purchase agreement for property located at 306 East Grand River Ave., Lansing. He stated that this deposit was returned to ROSE on 4/2/63. He stated that according to his records this check, in the amount of $100, drawn on his company account, was endorsed by FRANK ROSE, 5463 North Madison St., Chicago, Ill., and bears what appears to be a second endorsement of [redacted]. He stated that this check appears to have been cashed at the National Bank of Austin, city not indicated.

contact with Mr. [] for his firm, in connection with an offer to purchase property at 306 East Grand River Ave.

He stated that neither of the offers to purchase the above-described properties were accepted by the real estate owners and, therefore, no real estate transactions were consummated with ROSE.

b6

On 8/18/64, Mr. [] Walter Neller Co., advised he readily recalled the incident where a FRANK ROSE from Kalamazoo, Mich., appeared at the company office in 2 or 3/61, in an effort to locate and purchase certain pieces of property located in Lansing, Mich. He stated that ROSE advised him on these occasions that he was in the second-hand business in the Lansing area. He stated at no time did ROSE volunteer any background information concerning himself nor did he ever furnish any telephone number or exact address in Kalamazoo where he could be contacted. [] stated upon checking a photograph of ANTHONY ELDORADO, taken by the Chicago PD on 4/23/64, that the FRANK ROSE appearing in Lansing in 1961 somewhat resembled this individual from facial features; however, did not appear to be as heavy or as old as the photograph would indicate that ELDORADO is.

On the same date, Mr. [] [] Lansing, advised that he readily recalls the incident wherein an individual by the name of FRANK ROSE from Kalamazoo, Mich., appeared at the Walter Neller Co. Office making a downpayment of $100 for the purpose of entering into a purchase agreement to purchase property at 306 East Grand River Ave., Lansing. He stated that this deal was not consummated; however, ROSE did not apply for the return of his deposit for approximately a period of 2 years.

Mr. [] stated that he received several telephone calls from ROSE from Chicago, Ill., and he in turn had placed 2 telephone calls to ROSE in Chicago to a telephone number furnished by ROSE. He stated that he was unable to locate this telephone number from any records presently in his possession.

He stated that in 3/63, when ROSE telephonically contacted him from Chicago requesting return of his deposit on the property that he had originally furnished to Walter Neller Co. on 3/20/61; he indicated that he had not replied or requested that this deposit be returned before this date due to the fact that he had been seriously ill and had been hospitalized.

[] stated that during conversations that he had with ROSE in Lansing during 3/61, ROSE volunteered little information concerning his own background other than to indicate that he had been in the second-hand business for a number of years, had traded diamonds and other jems and desired to set up a second-hand business in the Lansing area.

[] stated upon viewing a photograph of ANTHONY ELDORADO, said photograph being taken by the Chicago PD 4/23/63, that he could not positively identify the individual known to him as FRANK ROSE as being identical with the Subject. He stated that there does appear to be some similarity as far as facial features are concerned; however, ROSE did not appear to be as heavy as the Subject, however, appeared to be the same age and height.

He stated that to the best of his knowledge ROSE never indicated where he lived in Kalamazoo, Mich., however, did mention on one occasion that he received his mail through his post office box in Kalamazoo.
